

Please do nothing to weaken Indiana's current law limiting phone solicitation and telemarketing. Our unwanted calls have dropped substantially since enrolling on the no-call list. Please allow us to remain in control of our phone and use it for our own convenience, rather than as a marketing tool for others.

Thank you.